

Service Development Worker, Financial Capabilities (Full-time)

Northside Partnership wishes to recruit the position of Service Development Worker, Financial Capabilities on a full time, fixed term basis.

Research launched in 2020, conducted by the Think Tank for Action on Social Change (TASC) has found that in Ireland single-parent households, low-paid workers and unemployed persons have consistently higher rates of over-indebtedness and lower rates of financial capability than other household types.

Based on this research, Northside Partnership in partnership with TASC, have developed a financial capability training and coaching programme called Money Made Sense, the pilot of which was launched within the Northeast Dublin area.

As a result of the success of the pilot programme, Northside Partnership in conjunction with TASC now seeks to document the learning and practice approach of the programme Money Made Sense as it evolves. This best practice framework is intended as an implementation tool for the programme in the post pilot phase and takes account of two contexts for the roll-out of the programme: for delivery in a community and workplace setting. Drawing on the work of the programme, the framework will provide a blueprint for how the programme should be delivered to allow for the scalability and replication in other areas.

About Northside Partnership

Northside Partnership is a Local Development Company working with individuals and communities in north east Dublin to bring about positive changes in their own lives and in the life of their community.

A registered Charity we work to improve opportunities for people experiencing poverty and disadvantage and offer a range of programmes and services to support individuals, local organisations and communities across the Northside Partnership catchment area.

Our key beneficiaries include long term unemployed people, early school leavers, those living with addiction issues, disadvantaged families, lone parents and people living with disabilities.

Northside Partnership is committed to implementing an Advantaged Thinking approach which focuses on identifying, developing and investing in skills, capabilities and assets of the people we work with.

Our work is funded by the Irish Government, charitable organisations and private sources.
